

Financial assistance is available to lower your costs. See if you qualify!

Add up the 2016 annual incomes (before taxes) of all family members to calculate your total annual pre-tax household income.

Use your family size (number of people in your tax household – those that you would include on your income taxes) and your total annual household income to find your plan options.

APTC & CSR: Customers in this income range qualify for an Advance Premium Tax Credit to help pay for monthly premiums and plans with Cost Share Reductions that have lower co-pays and out-of-pocket-costs.

*APTC Only: Customers in this income range qualify for an Advance Premium Tax Credit to help pay for monthly premiums.

QHP Only: Customers in this income range do not qualify for financial assistance, but may still purchase a plan through Connect for Health Colorado. If your income decreases throughout the year making you eligible for financial assistance, you can apply for it and receive it as a tax credit on your federal income tax return. You can only do this with a plan purchased through Connect for Health Colorado.
